

to us and said: "Go away from here in a hurry; you are free."

He and some of the prisoners gave us about a hundred tortillas, which is Mexican bread; they are like pancakes.

"We overate, for we had eaten nothing for five days. That night we both slept in a field, desperately sick from too much food.

The next day we walked 25 miles toward the American border, 200 miles away. We came upon a freight train and when we told the Mexican conductor our story he allowed us to ride on the beams. He was afraid to allow us to ride in a car for fear the revolutionists would catch him helping Americans.

When we reached the American side, at El Paso, we were both weak, but we stood on the American side of the bridge and cheered like two crazy men.

OUR PRECISE ARTIST.

"For the love of Mike."

Preliminary hearing of Mrs. Florence Bernstein, charged with having shot her husband, has been continued by Judge Dicker until May 16.

HEROINE IS TO TESTIFY AGAINST ALLEN BAND.

Miss Jezebel Goad.

One of the strongest witnesses against the Allen gang in their trial for the Hillsville, Va., courthouse murders will be Miss Jezebel Goad.

When the Allens started shooting, her father, the clerk of the court, fell wounded. He struggled to his feet and emptied his revolver at the outlaws. While Sidna and Claude Allen kept up a steady fire on the wounded clerk Miss Jezebel ran to him through a storm of bullets with a new weapon and he drove the Allens off.
